

CATEGORICAL EXCLUSION DETERMINATION

City of East Point
Water Line Rehabilitation/ Upgrade Program
Fulton County, WSID# 1210003
DW2021001

The Georgia Environmental Protection Division (EPD) has conducted a review of the above subject project in accordance with the State's Environmental Review Process (SERP) for Drinking Water State Revolving Fund (DWSRF) projects. The EPD has determined that this project is eligible for a categorical exclusion. Accordingly, the EPD is exempting the project from further substantive environmental review requirements under Georgia's SERP.

The City of East Point's proposed project includes rehabilitation of degraded/ undersized water lines throughout the city and Replacement of 2-4-inch mains throughout the city with a minimum of 6 inch and 8 inch to increase water pressure.

This project is eligible for a Categorical Exclusion because it meets the following criteria, outlined in the DWSRF SERP: Replacement of existing water lines, valves, hydrants, and appurtenances in existing rights-of-way for streets or utilities to serve existing customers, as well as, modest growth (less than 10%) with the existing service area resulting in no change in existing land use: Furthermore:

- The project will not require issuance of a new or modification of an existing ground water or surface water withdrawal permit.
- The project is not known or expected to have a significant adverse effect on the quality of the human environment, either individually, cumulatively over time, or in conjunction with other Federal, State, local or private actions.
- The project is not known or expected to directly or indirectly have a significant adverse effect on: or threatened species; or environmentally important natural resource areas, such as floodplains, wetlands, important farmlands or aquifer recharge areas; and cultural resource areas, such as archaeological and historic sites; habitats of endangered species;
- The action is cost-effective and is not expected to cause significant public controversy.

This determination shall become effective after thirty (30) days following its distribution by EPD and can be revoked if significant adverse information is made available. The documentation to support this decision is on file with the Georgia Environmental Protection Division and is available for public scrutiny upon request. A copy of the proposed project documentation is also available for review at the City Hall in East Point, Georgia.

All interested agencies, groups and persons supporting or disagreeing with this decision are invited to submit written comments, within thirty (30) days of the publish date of this notice to:
